This stylish log cabin with a small garden surrounded by a hedge is situated in a quiet part of the popular mountain resort town of Harrachov, near the center and a ropeway near ski jumps. Located in a protected area of a National Park on the border of the Jizera Mountains and the Krkonoše Mountains.

The ground floor consists of a separate kitchen, a living room, a bathroom, a toilet, and a vestibule. Upstairs, there are 2 bedrooms.

The approximately 100-year-old building was renovated in the 1970s. Plank floors; windows are wooden casement. The kitchen is equipped with a ceramic hob, Zanussi electric oven, extractor hood, and built-in fridge-freezer. On the plot is a wooden shed.

A great location close to the town center with restaurants, sports equipment rentals, and grocery stores. Within walking distance is a small ski resort and a ropeway, and near the house is a hiking trail leading to the Mumlava waterfalls. Harrachov is easily accessible by direct bus from Prague while the journey by car takes about 1.5 hours from the outskirts of the city.

Usable area of approx. 150 m², plot of land 290 m², built-up area and courtyard 386 m².
