This corner plot in a residential part of Háje, just a few minutes’ walk from a metro station, shops, and the popular Hostivař forest park with a reservoir and sandy beach, is occupied by a family house and barn, both intended for demolition or complete renovation.

The property is being offered through the transfer of 100% ownership in the company. Situated on the plot is a single-story house with an attic, in need of complete renovation or demolition, as well as a barn with a potential for various uses. Access is provided via an asphalt road, and all utility connections are available. An architectural study for a modern semi-detached house is in preparation; it is not included in the price and will be subject to negotiation with the building authority.
