This renovated family house with a southeast-facing garden is situated in a quiet residential area of a village on the eastern outskirts of Prague, near the Klánovice Forest Park.

On the ground floor, there is a spacious bright kitchen with a dining room, a sixty-meter living room with a wood burning fireplace, a winter garden with a whirlpool and a sauna, a vestibule, a guest toilet, a staircase hall, a cloakroom, and a pantry. Upstairs, there are 3 bedrooms (1 with terrace access), a walk-in closet, a bathroom, and a separate toilet.

The house from 1999 was reconstructed 2 years ago, including the bathrooms, toilets, facade, boiler, and tiles. The windows are plastic with wood decor, floating laminate floors and heated tiles (on the ground floor). Heating by a Buderus gas boiler. The landscaped garden has an irrigation system; the house is protected by a security system. Parking is in the double garage with direct access to the house, above it is a large storage space (38 sq. m.).

The center of the richly equipped village consists of a modified historical square with a chapel. There is a kindergarten and an elementary school, a post office, several restaurants, a sports complex and a sports hall, 5 playgrounds, a park where you can exercise in nature, and a botanical garden. The village has very good connections to Prague. There is a bus stop is within a 5-minute walk, the suburban bus goes to the Černý Most metro station (about 15 minutes). The center can also be reached by train from neighboring Klánovice or Zeleneč (the Masarykovo Railway Station is within 20 minutes). The proximity to the D11 highway makes traveling by car convenient.

Interior 197 m², built-up area 211 m², garden 879 m², plot 1,090 m².
